Complementary Jury Information

The Complementary Jury is for “non-craft” items that complement the Center for Maine Craft retail gallery. Complementary products include; books, prints, matted prints, assorted screen-printed products, photography, cards, food and candy, music, DVD’s, personal care products.

- Applicants must be current seasonal (6th months out of the year) or year-round residents of Maine.
- The Center for Maine Craft receives Complementary Jury Submissions on a rolling basis.
- The Complementary jury will make a determination on product submissions within a two week period from the date your submission is received. However, please note during busy summer months submission response time will be delayed.
- The Center for Maine Craft has limited resources (physical space and funds) allotted to complementary products.
- Applicants must be professional, capable of producing work of consistent quality and responsible for fulfilling orders obtained from the Center for Maine Crafts.
- The Center for Maine Craft takes most work in on a consignment basis; limited opportunities for wholesale do exist. Consignment is a 60/40 split, 60% going to the artist/40% to MCA.
- Applicants will be required to join the MCA if/when their product is ordered and renew on a yearly basis in January.

Jury Fee Information

- Individual Professional MCA Members, and Patron and Sustaining Institutions pay no jury fees.
- Individual within all Institutional MCA memberships pay $10.00 jury fee.
- Non-MCA members pay a $15.00 jury fee.
- All application fees are non-refundable transferable and need to be submitted with the submission materials.
- Applicants will not receive Complementary Jury results until the jury fee is paid.
- Approval by the Center for Maine Craft Complementary Jury is only the first step in the approval process. Orders and reorders depend upon demand, seasonality, and other factors related to the retail commerce.
